MEMORIAL DAY NEWS.

At the meeting of the joint committee on Memorial Day, held last might, the members of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, sent a communication that they intend to participate in the parade, but no definite word has been received from the Delaware College Cadets or pupils of the Wilmington High School and grammarschools, who were invited to take part in the parade on Memorial Day. A delegation from Eden Lodge I.O. O. F., informed the committee that the lodge will have nearly 200 men in line, and suitable badges for the occasion have been ordered.

One thousand flags were received by the committee vesterday, and they will be placed on the graves of reterans in the Wilmington cemeteries on Saturday atternoon. The men assigned to the task of decorating the graves, do not wish to ignore the resting place of any solidier, and they will be graves do not wish to ignore the resting place of any solidier, and they will be graves do they can be listinguished by the decorating dealerment. Flowers for this purpose will be acceptable to the vetrans, and all donations can be left in Memorial Day at the post rooms portheast corner 3d and Market.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West show reached our city at an early bour this morning and the tents and paraphernalia were taken out to the grounds on Frontstreet beyond Union street. All of the principal streets were thronged with hundreds of persons who watched the magnificent parade, which contained an object lesson for the conlookers. The rough riders sat on their ponies as if they were part of the animals, and were a sight worth seeing. Then followed the United States Regular Cavalrymen. Then passed in quick succession. German Curnssiers, Russian Cossacks, Arabian Acrobats, Royal Irish Lancers, Mexican Vaqueros, South American Ganches, Sloux Indians, Filipinos, Hawaians and Cubans, headed by several bands of music. Nearly one thousand horsemen were in line and the parade wasbetter than lots of performance will be given.
